DEFENDANTS' REPLY TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF FOUR DOCUMENTS

On September 19, 2002, Defendants did advise Plaintiffs that they were objecting to the production of four possibly relevant documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b) (3) because they were prepared in anticipation of litigation and Plaintiff had not shown that she had substantial need for them. Upon further consideration Defendants realized that, as noted by Plaintiff in her Motion, two of those documents had, in fact, already been produced. (Approximately 4,000 pages of documents have been produced by Plaintiff in this litigation; Defendants have produced approximately 8,000 pages of documents, so it is understandable that two of them may have been temporarily misplaced by Defendants in the discovery process.) Following receipt of Plaintiff's Motion Defendants reconsidered their objection and on October 3, 2002, provided Plaintiff with the two other documents. Defendants still contend that the four documents in question were indeed not subject to production pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b) (3), but the four documents having been produced, Plaintiff's Motion must be denied as moot.
